

2025 Nascar Rules

All picks MUST be sent prior to the start of the Daytona 500. To be fair, no teams will be accepted that are sent after the start of the race. Please pick ONE driver from each of the 9 groups (below). Then go back and pick a any driver from the 9 group(a driver you haven't pick yet) as your wild driver This will be your race team for the entire season.

If for any reason any of your drivers does not make a race, no points will be awarded. Points will be awarded to drivers, not to car numbers. So pick wisely :)).

We will use NASCAR's driver results per race to determine the points. Also penalties will affect your score if your driver get docked points.

Points will be awarded only for NASCAR Cup Series points races. All-Star & exhibition races will not be included.

Pool results will be email weekly, by Tuesday or Wednesday.(for those with emails share with your friends with no emails)
